

You Can Help Protect Child Sex Abuse

Children from

Every parent's biggest fears is something terrible befalling their child.

1 in 6 girls and 1 in 12 boys will be sexually assaulted before their 18th birthday.

Sexual predators have behaviors and patterns that can be identified.

As a parent it's important that you understand how perpetrators operate and how you can protect your children.

Topics to be covered:

- Sexual Abuse Overview
- Perpetrator Characteristics
- Grooming
- Preventing Abuse
- How Sex Assault Perpetrators Use Positions of Trust and Authority
- How to Report Suspected Abuse
- Ways as a parent you can talk to your children about sexual abuse
- Things to look for in organizations that your children are involved in

This presentation is designed for adults ONLY. Children may NOT attend.

For more information and to schedule a FREE presentation (days, evenings, weekends):

Contact: Don Moseley, Executive Director
Ralston House Child Advocacy Center
720-898-6745 or dmoseley@arvada.org

About Ralston House

Last year, Ralston House helped 1,000 traumatized and abused children begin the path to healing through their programs in partnership with social services and law enforcement. Ralston House serves Jefferson, Adams, Broomfield and Gilpin Counties at four locations: Arvada, Lakewood (2) and Northglenn.

Ralston House mission: Stop the Abuse and Start the Healing.

www.RalstonHouse.org