

Ralston House Quick Facts

All kids deserve to be safe & heard.
Kids who have suffered abuse find a safe space to tell their story at Ralston House.

- Ralston House is a Child Advocacy Center. Children that have experienced or witnessed physical or sexual abuse will come to Ralston House to be interviewed instead of a police station.
- Ralston House provides services in your community with 3 locations in Lakewood, Arvada, and Northglenn
- Ralston House works directly with law enforcement, district attorneys and child protective services to schedule interviews with children
- Services at Ralston House are FREE to families which include forensic interviews, victim advocacy, and medical wellness checks.
- 70% of children interviewed have experienced sexual abuse, 20% physical abuse and 10% witness to domestic violence or crime
- Ralston House is a comfortable family-friendly place where children feel safe to share their experience
- Ralston House interviews over 1,000 children each year
- Ralston House interviews children that are victims of human trafficking or witness to crime

More information is available at www.RalstonHouse.org
Help Ralston House stop the abuse and start the healing for these children.